

HOUSING PROGRAMS IN ACTION

Preserving Homes. Supporting Communities.

Preserving existing homes is an important part of addressing housing needs in El Paso County. As housing costs continue to rise, repairing and maintaining existing homes helps residents remain safely and stably housed in their communities.

Through Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding, El Paso County partners with local nonprofit organizations, including Brothers Redevelopment, to provide home rehabilitation and accessibility improvements to eligible residents.

During the third quarter of 2026, Brothers Redevelopment completed rehabilitation improvements at a home in El Paso County, replacing deteriorating front and rear decks and repairing leaking windows. The $18,734.36 project helped address safety concerns, protect the home from further deterioration, and preserve the homeowner's ability to remain safely housed.
